The Walk that took me Everywhere

27 5 9

Chapter 1 by Gbear

I heard them. The dogs chasing me down, Hunting me, Trying to take me back to jail. I quickly jumped over a rotten piece of wood that was decaying. Running so fast down a path in the woods. I could here the twigs snap beneath me as I ran as fast as a cheetah. Ouch my leg its caught in a vine with sharp green thorns that pierced into my leg. "Ow" I screamed. Oh man they probably heard me scream. Oh no here they come. As I was getting ready for the killing blow. It never came in fact I heard someone say "Are you okay?" I opened my eyes there was a little girl standing right in front of me. "Hello" She said. "My name is Mary." "Hello" I said "My name is Maria" "Why are they chasing you?" "I have been accused for doing some bad things." "Wow that's some cut on your leg. Lets go to my mama. She'll know what to do." "OK thanks" Mary was really nice this could be the start of a beautiful friendship.

Chapter 2 by IamPikachu

They walked to the little girls house, Maria limping, the cut was bad. Blood was dripping from the wound, and knowing that the cops were following her, this isn't the best time to be hurt. She needed to run. And get far away from the small town of Portland City. But no, this cut had to slow her down and keep her from getting away.

Chapter 3 by intellikat

"Best idea is to cut off the leg and replace with a robot leg," said Mary.

"Sounds good, sounds right," said Maria, and placed her leg beneath the circular saw blade.
